aforementioned fav wd of s. eagle rem AWFUL sad in viewing eagle's apt!

wild money imagery in hre

He always was all right going to the bathroom anyway. Why don't they always make a big deal about what everybody can do naturally? They make a lot of hat and then do all kinds of shit to their bodies

Black guy at motel

helps him empty trunk and embarrasses: I knew a lady into all this shit.

She ain't here no more. You dig? She ain't here no more. She could've been here but she ain't. Cause of this shit, you dig.

If she's into screwing now it's with angels, you dig?

You know what I'm saying?

/dying lady with the CLOWN makeup -- if listening 'd keep her alive finally says garish theatrical attempt to hold on without know why!

that's why scattered and confused except for her one theme:

I go enough

I go enough believe me!

How much time can y'll spend in the bathroom? blacks asks.

You said it. That 's a good one.

they cast e into asshole role and he denies too much

You got that right!

It became very important to believe her.

Florida the state where the refusal to die takes on grotesque forms. bl guy and women argue about how much

I'll tell you: All that shit gets in the way of all the good things, man!

Giru: don't tell me such things. The spiritual! New Age he called it

Everything is brand new and it's the same old shit

Well it ain't that I grant you.

actually shaking head to get rid of image

Eddie Crumbs, ten years makes a difference, rings on your fingers and a beautiful putting stroke.

BRILLIANT BRILLIANT SPARKLING DAY--sharp guy is hedonist--says

this is enough

e top of everything and cold fire around collar at end

I can't figure it. Been through hell.

Been through the fire more like and it hardened you or relaxed you or something. Whatever it is, keep with it.

Keep freeing your mind up.

No crumbs in the pockets now more like I don't know

Living my whole life scared I was. Learned a lot from people I met,

famous people and all kinds of fuckin screwballs you couldn't imagine, and the famous ones were mostly fucked up too but they had confidence and you wondered why They could walk into Lady Astor;s

Dinner Party bareassed and they wouldn't even blink.

but it don't make no difference what you wonders it's that person;s

mind that counts.

vcrumbs has theories but guy says you outgrow things or you sink a la

They had a play here at the Coconut Grove Playhouse my girlfriend took me to: wild duck or something like that it was called.

It said like when a duck got shot nad went down and tangled in the weeds it could come up if it wanted

E: jto get shot agian? Fuck that! Silver Eagle give him gimlet eye--E not too bright.

some pleople are like that. they get it once and give up.

--and E sees that silver 's eyes are eyes of that duck staring up throug waving weeds and gggreen murk etc.

Wild goose more like as I remembver you

I got me some better tastes i guess. In some things.

I learned a lot from the bad company I keeping.

Real Fat thues all week longCity! Eddie enjoyed the private joke.

Other facila features dark dark not blue collar or white sort of gray or something

From blue ribbon to heinikins amstel light.

well lim in awe

billy-Billie is a man and lady at once.

Silver Eagle waveshim off. That's enough shit for me.

thanks i guess Silver Eagle.--you always seemed to wash in money

Gonna add this up again and I'll tell you why. Course record I shit you not. No-o-pe can't nudge you down.

it was # 7 hole, skied the green, 8 iron just flew from that rough grass. a few putts along the way,too, i just played with instead of concentrating.

Yeah it was without all that you would've tied Craig Norman! The white shark for the course record. 67! white table and ber, rings , thinbgs seeable but dazzling!! eddie is tres excited!!!!

wd you believe a gy told me oncy I'd get a 68. guuru guyy. Well he was really a Jewish guy, lots of hair anyways.

get him down here we'll clean up! He's hot for the spiritual or somethbing call it anything you want we don;t give a fuck long's we make money!

he reeally knew how to sell fig juice.

Hey that shit always stays in style. Bring him down here we'll sell double , triple, and then start cutting it with water. They'll never know the difference.

I don't know what's happened to me. I just hope I can keep it up. It wasn't much pressure just you and I and no bets.

Only cause you wouldn't. But you let me take care of the bets tomorrow. Couple fellows just pulled in here in a lightning-colored Jaguar and they're telling everybody already how good they are.

I know they're good too--for about 5, 6 thou and maaybe up to ten. Not a bad day's work! But that's all my problem. I'll line it up and you just play.

I can't promise any near course records. I could hardly break 80 recently. I don't think I played a whole round all of last year, what with running the pro shop and the other thousand details.

MAN you were unconscious out there!

That's the secret then. Be unconscous. Free up. Look at me!

Few more strokes don't matter. We still clean up. And by that time another high tech car'll pull in. Made most of my money from BMWS--they've kept me in business.

Cadillac and Lincolns are usually beer distributors. Up the hard waythrough some of the wars the cities had. And some of their competers acquired cement overshoes, making it awful hard to walk on water.

.They don't take sucker bets adn it's harder to pry much out of them but not imposssible. And when you do they pay with a laugh cause a few thousand is peanuts. But any more than that and you get some mean looks and those looks translated to the aforementioned cement overshoes once upon a time.

But it's anyway too exhausting conning the con experts.
I save my energy for the real marks.
real gangsters are men of their words--you don't want threats from them.

when burglars knock over yuppie, pol rept shows ralph lauren-- a la jewel theiver y , decayed star etc Now everyone's a star with all the bullshit that entails fore and aft What a world! Everybody's a fucked-out movie star.

This fuckin dementia has made my life. Paradise of brand names.
They can use designer golfballs and dip their pricks in Calvin Kleins'

pecker lotion
if they want.

I don't know where all the money's coming from. It's coming downin showers! Where I come from I met people...

It's all of it got me in a fit. But there's so much of it around the suckers can't get enough sharpies to come around fast enough to take it. YOu got guys fucking in every hour!

I could mke aliving on japs alone if I go to Dade County community college and pick up a little of the lang.deplores short lifeGotta speed up the rotation of sharpies, set up a training school or something. And if it rains and they can't get out on the course, they'll cut cards with you always doubling the bet. rem opening ACity and suckers liined Poker not fast enogh. nothing fas tenough. upetc j waynes 45 all you gotta know of this vcountry etc Bridge makes em think and poker too slow, not matter how crazy a choice the dealer makes. Bridge much too methodical or something. It's like they can't lose fast enough--like that's the tragedy of their life. They got so much money they can't throw it away fast enough. It leads a lot of them into depression. e images money shower and there's gonn be a hellof a wave of japssoon. I'm thinking of lauguage lessons at dade county college I tell you this Florida is a paradise of suckers! You taking Master Charge, Silver Eagle?

Nope, not like the whores in Vegas yet. I'm partial to cash for a whole bunch of very good reasons.

victims/the're a lot like I am, just stupider

I'm just gonna stuff your pockets with money so tangible not nlike fats wealth--the beauty of cash. Take your literature and painting and sunsets even. I'll take cash , thanks.

I see women giving blow jobs and all these here priests or somethng blessing them for it! Up the ass and everything else.---all in a gush and he's embarr like w deth lady and black over fg juice etc. Silver E give him long look blue eyes look like they cd send laser. I just want their money. They can do anything else. They can do things not thought of yet. Whatever. Their big happinesss is in being fleeced believe me. onc ethey discoer that, they don't have to blow anybody but incong in slil segele's grub apt s eagle: no problem losing is conspic consumption also they like the vulnerable pose cause they cansucker in areas more important eddie: you show whole vulture world and you're happy!

it's no what you know makes you happy or what you see, it's in the using of it since he's in Fla then intimation of shooting--fixzted on farm store and big green--retail exp in pro shop mgr of estate too.

beer w lemon in coconut grove and somethng to do with ships The Russian and they cut cards until 1 thou is lost and always stop --but will continue till all hours until that point is reached. Then one or the other will write check--sometimes they're not cashed
or dep but exchanged etc ripped up --they're both con men Russian: I like the simple. Russian warns of e's fate, sees a violence. this hot air I it how you say, break

Eddie too soggy for that my friend's a mountain man, mountains of little Delaware, right?

Eddie watches a girleat onion rings lick fingers--Lissa like grains on lips but remind eagle of E's wife She still into the giggle water?
ah well, you just can feel sorry.
I like it toom but I'll be fucked if I let it keep me from fleecing all these suckers.

sedy bothes eddie in eagle's apt wher he ran up for cigs so eagle cd keep parkng space--there were none dela furniture wrong for Fla , unmade bed, beer bottles , models w gold clubs--faded
--vast banking papers on table w food etc--stink holes in shdes .
fla!
rem smellin apt as defeating--like cubicles in care showrooms he;s sorta hocky without mercy and not as bright and going down!

Big surprise! began Lissa's letter Eddie read in brilliant Florida sun,
next to the tiny pool of the motel, squinting and squinting and then blinking back tears reticulating the tourquoise etc. --making it super bright "I'm married when you read this. Guy I went to h.s. with who wouldn't say boo. We meet again at KMart, would you believe?, He's getting Fruit of the Loom briefs and blushes like crazy!
One word led to another. He's not your typical shit that's available nowadays. Business man! We're opening a Radio Shack together in this new scraggly-ass shopping center. Thanks for everything. You were a pal when I sorely needed one. And a better man than you would ever ever think. Come in when you get back. I'll save you a free beachball from our opening. You'll like my honey, no bullshit about him.

*S E is canny but sort of dumb too.--says inappropriate things wehn he's outof his element

When he thought of his childhood at all the only image he preferred extracting was one Sunday Breakfast at the Dupont hotel REP SOMWHRE in Wilmington. family in Sunday best for the sumptous breakfast buffet, the black chefs in mash potato hats, the one good rich time in a gold room that served to sustain an entire life-- central motif: rearranged reality os what happend to whom and who cares, especially since it cna be monip electroniccally. Mos tpeople believe reconstructed reality always better: we can give proof to the daydream. The starlet can groan unde us.

REM REPLAY IN KOPPEL C WHERE E AND GIRLS DO THINGS NOT REALLY DONE--THE PROGRAM MIANIPULATED
